Instructor biography:

I have owned and trained Newfoundlands for 30 years. I have enjoyed putting titles on my dogs in every aspect available to our breed. Most importantly; however, I have learned from each dog, picking up tips and developing training ideas along the way. My Newfs and I have grown closer for having overcome obstacles, and from celebrating their strengths as well. Many of the problem-solving techniques and training ideas I use are blends of things that have worked partially for multiple dogs. If one idea doesn't work for one dog; another might! I'm looking forward to working with each dog and handler team at the upcoming seminar, and to seeing how special each of your dogs are!
